me and DeryderM had quite a hunt earlyer this year in 2008! It all started the morning of the time change.Ive all ready told everyone about me shooting my six point.So this is like part two of that story.That morning of the time change I shot that six point then called up DeryderM/michael.He came over and I showed michael the deer hanging on my pole.He said that I tore him up :laugh: he brought me some movies like road trips with michael waddell or night and hale volumes.so I asked him if I could hunt with him that evening and he said NO! JUST KIDING:) HE SAID YES!so i took a nap and he ran off but im not sure why. I cant remember.but he finally came back and I had my stuff ready my bow outfit etc. so we got in the car and finally drove around to see if anythang was in the fiealds (deer) before we hit the woods.we drove up into his dads driveway and hit the woods.we never saw anythang but we had a great ambush it didn't work out but I had fun and DeryderM is a great guy and Im looking forward to hunting with him this year!!!B)

thanks Bucko,

If you keeping wacking bucks like that, I'll be too embarrassed to hunt with you! For a kid half my age that weighs as much as my leg, you sure are a killing son-of-agun! We also seen some that smaller buck running the heck outta that doe and then seen some backwoods country kids come outta the woods walking down the road with some 30 year old bows and about seven arrows, all different lengths popping out of the quiver. I'm sure you'll have many more stories as gobble-monster season is just around the corner!
